	MATTERS ARISING
AP UPDATES	 CU Social (Quiz Night) was a success, may be more to follow Results Day stalking went well too Merch Brochure has been created with different bundles to be sent to freshers, Microsoft forms to be used to follow up orders. Website is going alright, some more content for Academics (Y3-6), Welfare and Black History Month to be written soon too
FRESHER'S UPDATE	 T-shirt design has been finished Due to a change in government guidance, the fortnight has now shifted mostly online Will likely use Insta/FB for Fresher Fairs for Clubs and Socs Most events will use SU/Buddies for stewarding, but will still go ahead, some in person (like Mums and Dads and Scavenger Hunt) SU to keep dates free so they can steward during Freshers' Welcome Talks – 3 SU members at CX and 3 at SK across Tuesday and Wednesday (MN, NV, BK; NG, SP, ME)
BLACK HISTORY MONTH CAMPAIGN	 Multiple aims (e.g. spreading BLM awareness, educating on Black History, collaborating with ICSM) Running an 'Allies for Black Lives' post series, and a Welfare Book Club (to be run too for future campaigns) Running a creative competition to empower students Organised a panel of speakers for the end of the month SU to encourage engagement with the campaign wherever possible
NSS RESULTS (SU)	 SU Feedback: mostly positive, 73/74% Positive: Variety of extracurricular activities, social, academic and pastoral support Negatives: exclusivity, drinking culture, issues regarding safe drinking (consent) Academics Stream to work with faculty on NSS comments and have drafted SU response Stream leads to work on reviewing SU-specific comments to form an action plan and communicating these improvements to ICSM
NSS RESULTS (ACADEMICS)	 Very positive for resources, but many complaints including: Exam arrangements (likely a unique issue) High discrepancies/inequalities in placements Very low student engagement with large decisions (I.e. St. Marys) Low consistency in terms of exam feedback Academics Stream to meet with faculty on this soon, and many more meetings on NSS to follow with them.

Officer Reports

EXECUTIVE
Wow where to even begin Many a meetings - from boards to forums to inlots more. A lot of representation and advocacy Many an emails Many a whatsapps and other such messages Helping you all out with various bits and bobs in some beautiful things in the pipeline and to say is an understatement! On the above note, sort of helped Harroop and and stock count. Still got more to do but it's im actually walk inside it omg. Going through every line of our finances manual actual Student Experience Fund for our streams We're reworking our CU column in the Felix with Open day fun today – Q&As, Insta lives and all the Also been on other random webinars and q&a students. I've been rubbing shoulders (from >2m in line we government guidance) with a lot of other Union across the country and collectively discussing seeducation, and on a more on-the-ground level to Planning and helping to run our Inter-CU quiz — Sports hub actually seems to be moving on a litt Also discussing reopening of Reynolds gym with Planning for our training day and bag packing — Discussing COVID guidelines with Lupton, Amir	y on behalf of our students. In your teams – really looks like we've got y I'm excited about the next few months I Nicole with our CX office cleanup (yuck) amensely better already and we can ally for the past 3 years to calculate our is. Ith the other CUs that good stuff panels for incoming and prospective with all the constantly changing in presidents and sabbatical officers from some of the wider issues affecting Higher for our student experience. We won where it matters; the team bits. Ittle more and discussions are picking up. In Move Imperial. I fun times ahead.
